Pikes Peak Arts Council 2017 Arts Business Education Awards

Youth Recognition and Opportunities Award: Given for a specific performance, exhibition, or special project by middle or high school students and their instructors exemplifying outstanding achievement by student artists.

Arts Opportunities Award: Given to a public or non-profit organization, business or institution providing exceptional opportunities for student and emerging artists within and/or beyond the school setting.

Eligibility: Any individual, business, organization or institution in the Pikes Peak region involved in arts and cultural activities is eligible for nomination.

Ineligibility: Includes any self-nominations and previous PPAC/ABE award winners. If required, the PPAC board will make decisions on any unusual circumstances.

Selection: Award recipients will be chosen from the pool of nominees by the PPAC Board of Directors or specially designated committee. At the discretion of the Board (or committee) selections may include more than one award per category. The Board (or committee) may decide not to give an award in every category if the ranking does not merit the award.

Selection Criteria: The criteria the PPAC Board (or committee) will use to rank and select awards will be:

- Significance and magnitude of the creative achievement
- Length of time and intensity of activity dedicated to the arts.
- Leadership that stimulates growth, support and/or availability of the arts
- Contributions to excellence in the arts
